

House Resolution No. 764

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an extraordinary young Missouri citizen who has attained tremendous personal success through achievement in the Boy Scouts of America program; and

Whereas, Corey Austin Daughenbaugh of Troop 391 in Lee's Summit, Missouri, will receive the prestigious Eagle Scout Award during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held February 29, 2004, at Our Lady of the Presentation Catholic Church; and

Whereas, Corey Daughenbaugh earned the praise and respect of many for the enthusiasm and initiative he displayed in regard to his Eagle Project which involved constructing eight new fire pits and a large fire pit for group campfires, refurbishing another eight fire pits, and reclaiming eight spots where campers had built fires on top of the ground; and

Whereas, during his seven years in the Scouting program, Corey Daughenbaugh earned an impressive forty-four merit badges, received the Don Boscoe and Den Chief awards, attained Brave status in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say where his tribal name is "Heavenly Glowing Sun", and participated in Junior Leadership Training and two years of summer camp at the H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation, where he is in the Honors Camping program; and

Whereas, Corey Daughenbaugh has readily prepared himself for the challenges of the outside world through his important terms of service to his Troop as Patrol Leader, Assistant Patrol Leader, Librarian, and Den Chief; and

Whereas, the proud recipient of a Presidential Student Service Award, Corey Daughenbaugh is a freshman at Lee's Summit North High School where he is active in the ROTC program, the school orchestra, and the Civil Air Patrol; and

Whereas, Corey Daughenbaugh has achieved all of this and more with the love, support, and encouragement he has continually received from his proud parents, Kenneth and Cleone Daughenbaugh of Lee's Summit;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Corey Daughenbaugh at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best as he continues to uphold the Scouting tradition with both honor and decorum; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Corey Austin Daughenbaugh.
